FROM MANY TOWNS

Quite a Gathering of Theatre Managers Met at Wichita

There was an informal convention of opera house managers in Wichita Friday night and yesterday. All were from small towns, and their arrival was to secure the Winter-Klein Opera company for special engagements. L. W. Oakes, manager of the theatre at Kingman, and postmaster of the town, was in to try and secure the attraction for the Old Pueblo theatre at Kingman, April 21. Mr. Oakes made a very liberal offer and the theatre are still pending.

Manager Woods of Guthrie, who is in the same business, and W. V. Holt, of Hays, Kan., also sought the attraction for a special occasion the same week. Several citizens of Arkansas City are arranging a fund to endeavor to secure the company for one night before it leaves this section of the country, and J. H. Stedman, of Nevada, Mo., completed the list. The managers had a merry time before the gathering broke up and they sent their good-bys.
